Travel Vietnam

Vietnam is a vibrant Southeast Asian country known for its stunning landscapes, rich history, and cultural heritage. From the limestone islands of Halong Bay to the ancient streets of Hoi An and bustling Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam offers a unique blend of tradition, natural beauty, and modern charm.

Why Visit Vietnam?

You should visit Vietnam at least once for its breathtaking natural beauty, diverse culture, delicious cuisine, warm hospitality, and rich history. Whether cruising in Halong Bay, wandering ancient towns, or savoring street food in Hanoi, Vietnam offers unforgettable experiences that combine adventure, relaxation, and deep cultural connection in one amazing journey.

Places To Visit In Vietnam

Vietnam is a beautiful country with a mix of natural wonders and rich culture. In the north, places like Hanoi, Halong Bay, and Sapa offer history, limestone cliffs, and scenic mountain views. Central Vietnam has charming towns like Hoi An, beaches in Da Nang, and royal history in Hue. Down south, explore the busy streets of Ho Chi Minh City, the peaceful Mekong Delta, and enjoy beaches in Mui Ne or Phu Quoc. From caves and temples to rivers and markets, Vietnam has something special for every traveler.

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Hanoi and City Exploration

Upon your arrival in Hanoi, check into your hotel and freshen up. Begin your city exploration with a visit to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, the final resting place of Vietnam's revered leader, followed by the One Pillar Pagoda nearby. Continue to the Temple of Literature, Vietnam's first university, and then explore the Vietnam Museum of Ethnology to understand the country's diverse ethnic cultures. In the evening, enjoy a traditional water puppet show – a unique Vietnamese art form – and have dinner in the vibrant Old Quarter. Overnight stay in Hanoi.

Day 2: Hanoi to Halong Bay

After breakfast, depart from Hanoi to the stunning Halong Bay, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Upon arrival, board a traditional junk boat and begin your scenic cruise through the limestone islands and emerald waters. Visit the famous Surprise Cave (Sung Sot Cave) and enjoy optional activities like kayaking or swimming. As the sun sets, savor a fresh seafood dinner on board and spend the night cruising under the stars.

Day 3: Halong Bay to Hoi An

Wake up early and join a Tai Chi session on the deck to start your day peacefully. After breakfast, explore a nearby fishing village to see the local way of life. Return to the harbor and transfer back to Hanoi. From there, take a flight to Da Nang and proceed to Hoi An. Check into your hotel and spend the evening wandering through Hoi An's enchanting lantern-lit streets, soaking in its old-world charm.

Day 4: Exploring Hoi An

Start your day with a guided walking tour through Hoi An's ancient town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Visit historical landmarks such as the Japanese Covered Bridge, the old Tan Ky House, and the Fujian Assembly Hall. Later, enjoy a relaxing boat ride along the Thu Bon River and have lunch at a picturesque riverside restaurant. In the afternoon, immerse yourself in a hands-on Vietnamese cooking class. As night falls, stroll through the bustling night market and taste delicious local street food. Overnight stay in Hoi An.

Day 5: Hoi An to Ho Chi Minh City

After breakfast, fly from Da Nang to Ho Chi Minh City (formerly Saigon). Start your city tour by visiting the War Remnants Museum, which provides deep insights into the Vietnam War, and the Reunification Palace, a historic symbol of the end of the war. Continue to the iconic Notre-Dame Cathedral Basilica of Saigon and the nearby Central Post Office, both fine examples of colonial architecture. In the evening, enjoy shopping and dining at Ben Thanh Market before heading to the airport or your hotel, marking the end of a memorable journey.
