Important Things to Know Before Visiting Bhutan (from India):

1. Passport & Visa: Indian citizens don't need a visa to enter Nepal, but carry a valid passport or voter ID for entry.
2. Currency: Nepalese Rupee (NPR) is the local currency. Indian currency is accepted (except ₹2000 & sometimes ₹500 notes).
3. Connectivity: Indian SIM cards don't work in Nepal. Buy a local SIM (like Ncell or NTC) for internet and calls.
4. Electricity: Power sockets are mostly 230V. Carry a universal adapter if needed.
5. Clothing: Pack according to season—light clothes in summer, warm layers in winter or hill areas.
6. Language: Nepali is the official language, but English and Hindi are widely understood in tourist spots.
7. Transport: Local taxis, buses, and flights connect major destinations. Roads can be rough in remote areas.
8. Weather: Avoid monsoon (June–August). Best seasons are spring (March–May) and autumn (Sept–Nov).
9. Safety: Nepal is safe for travelers. Be cautious in remote trekking routes and follow local advice.
10. Culture & Etiquette: Respect temples, remove shoes before entering, and avoid public display of affection.
